SGS included in new sustainability index of SIX Swiss Exchange

SGS, the world's leading testing, inspection and certification company, is pleased to announce that it has been included in the newly launched SPI® ESG 25 Index, introduced by SIX, the Swiss stock exchange operator.

The inclusion of SGS recognises the company's strong sustainability performance and long-standing commitment to responsible business practices.

The SPI ESG 25 Index brings together 25 leading Swiss companies that combine high ESG standards with strong market relevance and quality within the Swiss equity market.
